Die Martis, 17. Maii. 1642.

Severall Votes of Parliament, concerning Sergeant Major Generall Skippon.

Reſolved upon the Queſtion.

THat this command of His Majeſtie to call Captain Philip Skippon, Sergeant Major Generall of the Forces of London, to attend His Majeſties Perſon at York, is againſt the Law of the Land and the liberty of the Subject.

Reſolved upon the Queſtion.

That this command of His Majeſtie, to call Captain Philip Skippon, Sergeant Major Generall of the Forces of London, to attend His Majeſties Perſon, being imployed by both Houſes to attend their Service, without their conſent, is againſt the priviledge of Parliament.

Reſolved upon the Queſtion.

That Captain Philip Skippon, Sergeant Major Generall of the Forces of London, ſhall continue to attend the Service of both Houſes, according to their former commands.
